Dear Friend,

In honor of Black History Month 2008, the Santa Ana Black Historical Society is pleased to present our 1st Annual Barnes & Noble Book Fair!

You are cordially invited to shop at select Barnes & Noble stores for books, periodicals, CD's, DVD's, café items and more, from February 8 through 22, 2008 and support our organization at the same time! By presenting our voucher or mentioning our Society's name – The Santa Ana Black Historical Society – at the point of purchase, you will be contributing to our long-range goal of establishing an African American Museum right here in Orange County!

So that we might assist you in your selections and purchases, we have attached a "Recommended Reading List" and Book Fair voucher. We compiled this list of select readings on the unique legacy of African American life and contributions with the added feature of works by local authors writing on Black life in Southern California. Towards that end, we also extend an invitation for you to join us at "A Night at Barnes & Noble" featuring local authors. Dorothy Love will give insight and reflections on her book "Love Has Something to Say"- a gripping account of real-life tragedy and God's grace in overcoming adversity. Dr. Lawrence de Graaf, a professor at California State University, Fullerton will present his book "Seeking El Dorado: African Americans in California".

Night at Barnes & Noble Featuring Local Authors Dorothy Love and Dr. Lawrence de Graaf

When: February 20, 2008
Where: Barnes & Noble, Metro Pointe, Costa Mesa (across from South Coast Plaza)
Time: 7:00 p.m.
Information: (714)444-0226

(Book-signing to follow)

We are thrilled to present this opportunity for you to indulge in the legacy, art and culture of African American Southern California and America! We look forward to your continued support and wish you "Happy Reading".
